

Timetable of REACHOUT papers at the Kampala Symposium on Community Health Workers

REACHOUT are delighted to be attending the Symposium on Community Health Workers and their Contribution towards the Sustainable Development Goals which will take place in Kampala from the 21-23 February 2017. You can find out more on their website <http://chwsymposium.musph.ac.ug/>

Tuesday 21 February

14:00 - 15:30	History and current state of CHW programmes	Nile Hall
Ralalicia Limato (Eijkman Institute, Indonesia)	Challenges of community health workers in sustaining maternal and child health program in Indonesia
14:00 - 15:30	Performance, motivation and satisfaction	Rwizi Hall
Aschenaki Kea (REACH Ethiopia)	Factors influencing motivation of health extension workers in Sidama zone, south Ethiopia: A qualitative study
14:00 - 15:30	Delivery of health services	Sezibwa Hall
Maryline Mireku (LVCT Health, Kenya)	Referral to health facilities in Kenya: Factors that support community health volunteers in linking the community and health systems

Wednesday 22 February

12:00 - 13:00	Coordination and supervision of CHWs programmes / Communicable diseases (HIV)	Rwizi Hall
Robinson Karuga (LVCT Health, Kenya)	Action research to assess the effect of a supportive supervision training intervention targeting supervisors of community health workers in Kenya
14:00 - 15:30	Maternal, newborn and child health	Nile Hall
Daniel Datiko (REACH Ethiopia)	Community Engagement for Maternal Health: Lessons Learned from Southern Ethiopia
14:00 - 15:30	Performance, motivation and satisfaction	Rwizi Hall
Aschenaki Z. Kea (REACH Ethiopia)	Perception and experience of supportive supervision as quality improvement intervention to improve performance of health extension workers on maternal health in Sidama
14:00 - 15:30	Communicable diseases (HIV/AIDS, TB)	Sezibwa Hall
Gemeda Birie (REACH Ethiopia)	Involving lay health workers for Tuberculosis case finding and treatment outcomes in rural Ethiopia
16:00 - 17:00	Sexual and reproductive health	Nile Hall
Sushama Kanan (BRAC University, Bangladesh)	Close to community providers role in strengthening reproductive health service provision: lessons from an implementation research, REACHOUT Bangladesh
16:00 - 17:00	Gender and Ethics in CHWs work/Non Communicable Diseases	Orange Hall
Rosalind Steege (Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, UK)	Policy and discourse on community health workers: a gender and equity analysis
16:00 - 17:00	Challenges, lessons learnt and opportunities	Orange Hall
Sumit Kane (Royal Tropical Institute, Netherlands)	Empowering Community Health Workers to be agents of social change

Thursday 23 February

14:00 - 15:30	Health Management Information System (HMIS) and mobile health	Orange Hall
Regeru Regeru (LVCT Health, Kenya)	Exploring data quality in Community Health Information Systems in Kenya: a mixed methods Study
14:00 - 15:30	Leadership, governance and accountability/multisectoral collaboration	Rwizi Hall
Nelly Muturi (LVCT Health, Kenya)	Community perceptions and participation in Health in the context of the Community Health Strategy in Kenya	